

Bonampak and jungle walk

Minimum 2 people required to book

Operates daily / Shared tour

Departure from Palenque

You will be met in the lobby of your hotel at 5:30 am, and then we will proceed to the buffet breakfast (approximately 7:30 am). After breakfast, we will continue to the Lacandon camp (Lacanja), where the driver will introduce you to the native Lacandon guide. The guide will remain in charge of the group at the camp and will later lead us on a tour through the Lacandon Jungle (approximately 4 hours), visiting local flora and fauna, the Lacanja River, waterfalls, and an archaeological site still covered by the jungle. You will have the opportunity to swim in the river and take photos. Afterward, we will return to the camp for lunch.

We will then continue to the archaeological site of Bonampak, a Mayan word meaning "painted walls" or "stained walls." The visit will take approximately 1 hour and 30 minutes. Eight kilometers before arriving at the site, we will change vehicles, as the Lacandon people have their own vehicles for transportation. After the visit, we will transfer to the hotel in Palenque, arriving at approximately 8:00 pm., où nous arriverons vers 20h00.
