Days of operation: every day / Shared service tour

Departure from Mérida

Discover the greatness of Mérida in each emblematic site, ready to be photographed in this citytour.

Founded in 1542 and built on the ancient Mayan city of T'hó, it stands out for its extensive offer of cultural and artistic attractions, a colonial historical center with European architectural influence and an outstanding French style that we can admire in the houses of Paseo de Montejo , the most important avenue in the city.

Merida the white city with its main avenue Paseo de Montejo, which has its colonial buildings such as the Cantón Palace and the beautiful monument to the homeland, among other equally magnificent places.
