

Malpica, Concordia and Copala, artisan and colonial route

Minimum 1 person to reserve

Operates Wednesday and Friday / Tour in shared service

Departure from Mazatlán

Mazatlán is recognized as the main beach destination, however, we also find the characteristic artisan towns. This route is specially designed for people who want to know the regional part of Mazatlán.

The collection point to start the journey will be at your Hotel. The first stop will be in the town of Malpica, here we will visit an artisanal mosaic factory and a bread factory. The second stop will be at La Concordia, an artisan town dedicated to the manufacture of furniture, bricks, and clay handicrafts. Finally we will arrive at Copala, a town founded 400 years ago in the middle of the mountains, upon arrival we will visit the old prison, the San José Church and its streets and colonial-style houses.

At the end of the tour we return to Mazatlán.
