Vacation package with tours, transfer and hotel

Tour the state of Chihuahua for 6 days and get to know the wonders of Chihuahua, starting with a city tour where you will visit the Pancho Villa museum, the Government Palace and its murals, the Cathedral, residential areas, central squares, among others.

You will visit the Mennonite fields where the famous cheese of the same name is made, including entrance and explanation of the local museum as well as a light meal based on cheeses and cold meats.

Also a tour of the Coyame caves, a cavity through which an hour and a half tour is made underground. The first impression that is received is that of entering a place near the sea, the temperature and the smell of humidity clearly indicate that this was a maritime space many centuries ago.

Finally, visit the Cascada de Basaseachic National Park where the environment is made up of forests, ravines and streams with tiny cultivated valleys.

The waterfall will surprise you with the drop of 246 meters high, which makes it the highest in our country.

Adventure in Chihuahua awaits you!
