You will get to know the Historic Center of Veracruz in a different way, taking a panoramic tour to learn about the history and cultural richness of the oldest city in our country, admiring its most emblematic buildings and sites, such as the Baluarte de Santiago, the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Assumption, Civil Registry Buildings, Venustiano Carranza Lighthouse, the famous Barrio de la Huaca, boardwalk and Villa del Mar.

We continue along the coastal boulevard enjoying the landscape and beaches.

We arrived at Boca del Río admiring the contrast with modernity, its shopping malls, variety of restaurants and nightlife. Here we visit the Currency Museum (closed on Mondays) Foro Boca and Plaza Banderas. We will taste bulls (a typical jarocho alcoholic drink) and then we will go through the entire Riviera Veracruzana until we reach Mandinga (a word of African origin that makes reference to a dark God) Afro-descendant community belonging to the municipality of Alvarado: here we will take a boat ride through the mangroves in the lagoon admiring its ecosystem and exuberant vegetation of flora, fauna and its islets of shells.

At the end, if you wish, you can enjoy the gastronomy in its restaurants in the area, famous for its seasoning and its typical food from Veracruz based on mixed-race fusion seafood.

At the end of the tour, the operator returns them to the same Hotel.
