

Archaeological site of Paquimé

Minimum 2 people to reserve

Operates from Tuesday to Sunday / Shared service tour

Departure from Chihuahua

The operator will pick you up at your hotel where you are staying to start the tour to the archaeological site of Paquimé, named Cultural Heritage of Humanity by UNESCO in 1998. Here you can meet a mysterious pre-Hispanic culture that influenced the northwest of the Sierra. Madre Occidental and its typical adobe buildings, ceremonial centers and beautiful clay vessels characteristic of this ancient culture. Also, you can visit the famous Museum of Northern Cultures, where the guide will talk about the important collection of archaeological and historical pieces that the site houses.

We will also go to the town of Mata Ortiz, a unique pottery town in the north, internationally famous for its artisans and the manufacture of fine ceramics inspired by the technique and design of the Paquimé culture. You will be able to witness a demonstration, by local artisans, of the pottery making process, as well as enjoy some time to rest with a delicious meal before returning to the city of Chihuahua.

Return to the hotel in Chihuahua.
