

Tlacoachahuaya, Yagul archeological zone and Tlacolula market

Private tour service

Operates every Sunday

Departure from Oaxaca de Juárez

We will pick you up at your hotel to start the tour, our first stop will transport you in time and space. You will visit the impressive Church of Tlacoachahuaya, an architectural treasure dating back to the 16th century. Its exquisite murals and serene atmosphere will leave you speechless.

Then, we head to the colorful traditional market of Tlacolula de Matamoros, where flavors and colors merge into a symphony of culture. Here, you will have the opportunity to admire vibrant colors, tempting aromas and the bustle of locals exchanging traditional products. You will visit the Chapel of Mirrors.

Finally, we venture to the archaeological zone of Yagul, where ancient ruins tell us stories of past civilizations. The landscapes and energy of this place will remind you of the greatness of Oaxaca's history.

After an exciting half day of exploring, we will return to your hotel or Airbnb around 2pm.
