

Tour to Antigua and San Juan de Ulua

Minimum 2 people to reserve

Available Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday

Shared service tour / Departure from Veracruz

The operator will pick them up at the Hotel where they are staying, to take them on the tour.

We start with La Antigua, a small town framed by huge and leafy trees on the banks of the Huitzilapan River or the hummingbirds, we can find the legacies of the Spanish conquest, such as the Casa del Cabildo and the first Catholic Hermitage in Mexico. Then we visit the Fortress of San Juan de Ulúa, one of the oldest fortresses in the American Continent, to which great events in the history of our country are linked during the Colony, Independence, the Reform and the Revolution. In addition to the fact that it has fulfilled several functions throughout its more than 500 years of existence: first it was used as a grain store, then it was a fortress, prison and presidential residence, a place full of history that will take us back in time.

We finish with a panoramic tour in Veracruz Port and Boca Del Río to see the main points of interest such as the buildings of the Old Maritime Customs, Telegraphs, Railways, Historic Center, the Malecón promenade, the Bastion of Santiago, as well as Boca del Rio with its modern hotel infrastructure, beautiful beaches, its gastronomic corridor on the banks of the Jamapa River, the Plaza Banderas, the Church of Our Lady of Santa Ana from the 16th century that is celebrated in the month of July and the Municipal Palace.

At the end of the tour, the operator returns them to the same Hotel.
