Shared service tour / Departure from Veracruz

The operator will pick you up at the Hotel where you are staying, to take you to the tour.

We begin with a visit to San Juan de Ulúa, one of the oldest fortresses in the American Continent and it is linked to great events in the history of Mexico during the colony, independence, reform and revolution. In addition to having fulfilled several functions throughout its more than 500 years of existence.

Later we visited the Veracruz Aquarium, it occupies the eighth place of the most visited in the world, it opened its doors in 1992 to become in a short time an emblem of the modern Port of Veracruz. It is also the largest ocean fish tank in Latin America, you will meet tropical fish from the Gulf of Mexico, penguins and manatees.

We continue to the Historic Center of Veracruz Port and Boca del Río with a panoramic tour of the city to see the main points of interest such as the buildings of the old Maritime Customs, currently the First Naval Region of Mexico, the Telegraph building, Railways, the Paseo from the Malecón, the Baluarte de Santiago, as well as Boca del Río with its modern hotel infrastructure, beautiful beaches, its gastronomic corridor on the banks of the Jamapa River, the Plaza Banderas y de Armas, the Church of Nuestra Señora de Santa Ana from the 16th century which is celebrated in July and the Municipal Palace.

We will give you passes so that you can fully enjoy the Naval Museum that is located in the regal building that was the first military naval school. You will learn the development of the Mexican Navy in 28 rooms where more than 1700 pieces are exhibited, here children will be able to interact with some and talk with naval officers who will teach them a workshop as well as the importance of this noble institution of our country.

At the end of the tour, the operator returns them to the same Hotel.
